We Are Digital and South East Local Enterprise Partnership (SELEP)

We Are Digital, a specialist provider of digital inclusion training, has partnered with the South East Local Enterprise Partnership (SELEP) to offer residents across East Sussex, Essex, Kent, Medway, Southend and Thurrock free remote training to find new jobs online.

Why do I need digital skills?

Companies are increasingly looking for applicants with digital skills. In fact, by 2030 75% of jobs will require these.* Research shows employment is closely linked to digital literacy. What's more, you can boost your earnings by up to 10% just by developing new skills and getting ahead of the game.

Lack of digital capability proves a barrier to many in the south-east. Research shows approximately 35% of the area is either completely offline or has limited internet use – let alone considered a 'digital native'.
